THE WORLD IS FULL OF BEAUTY.

There is beauty in the forest,
Where the trees are green and fair;
There is beauty in the meadow,
Where flowers scent the air;
There is beauty in the sunlight,
And the soft blue beam above;
Oh! the world is full of beauty,

There is beauty in the fountain,
Singing gaily at its play,
While rainbow hues are glittering
On its silvery shining spray;
There is beauty in the streamlet,
Murmuring softly through the grove;
Oh! the world is full of beauty,
When the heart is full of love.

There is beauty in the moonlight,
When it falls upon the sea;
While the [illegible] foam-crested billows
[illegible] and frolic joyously;
There is beauty in the lightning gleams
That o'er the dark heavens rove;
Oh! the world is full of beauty,
When the heart is full of love.

There is beauty in the brightness
Beaming from a loving eye,
In the warm blush of affection,
In the tear of sympathy;
In the sweet low voice, whose accents
The spirit's [illegible] love prove;
Oh! the world is full of beauty,
When the heart is full of love.

BASIS OF UNION.

Agreed upon by the ASSOCIATE and ASSOCIATE REFORMED Synods, at their recent respective sessions in the cities of Philadelphia and New York.

WE DECLARE, That God has not only in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, given a revelation of his will to man, as the only rule of faith and practice, but that these Scriptures, viewed as a revelation from God, are verily the inspired word of God, and that this inspiration extends to the language, as well as to the sentiments which they express.

That our Lord Jesus Christ is not only true man, but very God, being one in essence with the Father, and also the Son of God in respect of his eternal, necessary, and eternal relation to the Father.

That God having created man in a state of perfect holiness, and in possession of a perfect ability to obey him in all things, did enter into a covenant with him, in which covenant Adam was the representative of all his natural posterity, so that in him they were to stand or fall as he stood or fell.

That our first parents did, by their breach of covenant with God, subject themselves to his eternal wrath, and bring themselves into such a state of depravity as to be wholly inclined to sin, and altogether unable, by their own power, to perform a single act of acceptable obedience to God; and that all their natural posterity, in virtue of their representation in the covenant, are born into the world in the same state of guilt, depravity, and [illegible], and in this state will continue until delivered therefrom by the free and [illegible] grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

That our Lord Jesus Christ did, by the appointment of the Father, and by his own gracious and voluntary act, place himself in the room of a definite number, who were chosen in him before the foundation of the world, so that he was their true and proper legal Surety; and as such, did, in their behalf, satisfy the justice of God, and answer all the demands which the law [illegible] against them, thereby infallibly obtaining for them eternal redemption.

That in justification there is an imputation to the believer of that righteousness, or satisfaction and obedience, which the Lord Jesus Christ, as the surety of his people, rendered to the law, and that it is only on the ground of this imputed righteousness that his sins are pardoned and his person accepted in the sight of God.

That the gospel, taken in its strict and proper sense, as distinguished from the law, is a revelation of grace to sinners as such, and that it contains a free and unconditional offer and grant of salvation through Christ, to all who hear it, whatever may be their character or condition.

That in true and saving faith there is not merely an assent of the mind to the proposition that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Saviour of sinners, but also a cordial reception and appropriation of him by the sinner as his Saviour, with an accompanying persuasion or assurance corresponding to the degree or strength of his faith that he shall be saved by him: which appropriation and persuasion are founded, solely, upon the free and unconditional, and unlimited offer of Christ and salvation in him, which is made in the gospel to sinners of mankind.

That that repentance which is a saving grace, is one of the fruits of a justifying faith; and, of course, cannot be regarded as a ground of the sinner's pardon, or as necessary to qualify him for coming to Christ.

That although the moral law is of perpetual obligation, and consequently does, and ever will, bind the believer as a rule of life, yet, as a covenant, he is by his justification, through Christ, completely and for ever set free from it, both as to its commanding and condemning power, and consequently not required to yield obedience to it as a condition of life and salvation.

That the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, does, by a direct operation accompanying the word, act upon the soul so as to quicken, regenerate and sanctify it; and that without this direct operation the s[illegible] no ability to perceive, in a savin[g] [illegible] truths of God's w[illegible] yield [illegible] which it presents.

That our Lord Jesus [illegible], be[illegible]minion which belongs to him as God, has, as our God-man Meditator, a twofold dominion, with which he has been invested by the Father as the reward of his sufferings. These are a dominion over the church, of which he is the living Head and Law-giver, and the source of all that Divine influence and authority by which she is sustained and governed; and also a dominion over all created persons and things, which is exercised by him in subserviency to the manifestation of God's glory in the system of redemption, and the interests of his church.

That the law of God, as written upon the heart of man, and as set forth in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, and that where the commands of the church or state are in conflict with the commands of this law, we are to obey God rather than man.

That slave-holding—that is, the holding of unoffending human beings in involuntary bondage, and considering and treating them as property, and subject to be bought and sold—is a violation of the law of God, and contrary both to the letter and spirit of Christianity.

That all associations, whether formed for political or benevolent purposes, which impose upon their members an oath of secrecy, or an obligation to obey a code of unknown laws, are inconsistent with the genius and spirit of Christianity, and church members ought not to have fellowship with such associations.

That the church should not extend communion, in sealing ordinances, to those who refuse adherence to her profession, or subjection to her government and discipline, or who refuse to forsake a communion which is inconsistent with the profession that she makes; nor should communion in any ordinance of worship be held under such circumstances as would be inconsistent with the keeping of these ordinances pure and entire, or so as to give countenance to any corruption of the doctrines and institutions of Christ.

That public social covenanting is a moral duty, the observance of which is not required at stated times, but on extraordinary occasions, as the providence of God, and the circumstances of the church may indicate. It is seasonable in times of great danger to the church—in times of exposure to backsliding—or in times of reformation, when the church is returning to God from a state of backsliding. When the church has entered into such covenant transactions, they continue to bind posterity faithfully to adhere to and prosecute the grand object for which such engagements have been entered into.

That it is the will of God that the songs contained in the book of Psalms, be sung in his worship, both public and private, to the end of the world; and in singing God's praise, these songs should be employed to the exclusion of the devotional compositions of uninspired men.

Unique Letter from a Post-Master.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says:

The following letter was received by the President a few days since, and for simplicity and unsophisticated[illegible] exceeds anything that has been received by this or any other administration. Through the kindness of one of the Secretaries I have been permitted to take a verbatim copy, leaving out, however, the post-office and the name of the individual. There are other people in Missouri besides border ruffians and republicans. Here is the letter:

CRAWFORD Co., Mo., April 30, 1857.

MR. BUCHANAN:—

Dear Sir—Mr. —— is the post-master at this place, and he is gone out West, and has been gone for three or four weeks, and he has no deputy here, but I have been opening the mails and attending to it since he has been gone; as he left the key with me, and the post-master told me that I must make a report at the end of every month and did not tell me who I was to write to, but I suppose it is to you we should make our reports, as we are all citizens of the government of which you are now President. If you are not the right one to receive the report please drop me a few lines letting me know who I am to report to, and I will write again.

REPORT AT THE END OF APRIL.—The weather is cold for the season—Provisions scarce and very high—But notwithstanding all that we have regular mails once a week, good health, pleased with your administration; this is all I know that would interest you; if there is anything omitted in my report please let me know. My best respects to you and Mrs. Buchanan.

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL.—The Journal of Commerce gives the following account of a new hotel on the Fifth Avenue, in which $1,000,000 will be invested:

"A still more notable building is the mammoth hotel recently commenced on Fifth Avenue, and extending from 23d to 24th streets (formerly known as the Hippodrome property,) for Amos R. Eno. It is anticipated that this edifice, as a hotel, will be nowhere surpassed in this country. On Fifth Avenue it will have a white marble front of two hundred feet, and a depth on the side streets of two hundred and twenty-four feet—the whole six stories in height. It will be in the Italian style of architecture, with projecting porticoes to the main entrances—spacious vaults, dining-rooms and kitchens on the second floor, suites of apartments sufficient to accommodate one thousand persons, bath-rooms, and all the appurtenances of an hotel of the highest class. The building will be heated by steam in every part. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $500,000: or, including ground and furniture, about $1,000,000. It is expected that the building will be finished in the fall of 1858. The Fifth Avenue side will form seven stores. A distinguished feature will be the great width of the corridors, intersecting the building in every part. None will be less than ten feet, and that to the dining room will be twenty-eight.

NEW SCHOOL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ON SLAVERY.

[illegible] the 3d inst., the General Assembly [illegible] New school Presbyterian Church, convened at Cleveland, declared its views on the subject of slavery, by passing Prof. Allen's substitute as amended by Mr. Kendall. The vote was, yeas 166; nays 26; excused from voting 2; absent at the final vote 30. Dr. Ross gave notice of protest to the action of Assembly on slavery; and he and others in the negative had leave to withdraw, to expedite the presentation of the protest.

Prof. Allen's [illegible] Amended by [illegible]

The General [illegible]bly, in view of the memorials before them, and of the present [illegible] the subject of Slavery, [illegible] make the following [illegible] duty.

The Presbyterian church in these United States, has from the beginning, maintained an attitude of decided opposition to the institution of Slavery.

The Synods of New York and Philadelphia, in 1787, two years before the organization of the General Assembly, declared that they "do highly approve of the general principles [illegible] of universal liberty that prevailed [illegible], and the interest which many of the states had taken in promoting the abolition of slavery," and "they recommend it to all their people to use the most prudent measures consistent with the interest and state of civilized society in the countries where they lived, to procure eventually the abolition of Slavery in America."

In 1793, while the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church was in process of formation and publication, the action of the Synod just referred to was approved by the General Assembly and re-published by its order.

The Assembly of 1795 declared "that although in some sections of our country under certain circumstances the transfer of slaves may be unavoidable, yet they consider the buying and selling slaves by way of traffic, and all undue severity in the management of them, as inconsistent with the spirit of the Gospel. And they recommend it to the Presbyteries and Sessions under their care to make use of all prudent measures to prevent such shameful and unrighteous conduct."

The Assembly of 1815 "expresses their regret that the slavery of the Africans and their descendants still continued in so many places, and even amongst those within the pale of the church," and called particular attention to the action of 1795 with respect to the buying and selling of slaves.

In 1818 the Assembly unanimously adopted a report on this subject, prepared by Dr. Green of Philadelphia; Dr. Baxter, of Virginia, and Mr. Burgess, of Ohio, of which the following is a part:

"We consider the voluntary enslaving of one portion of the human race by another as a gross violation of the most precious and sacred rights of human nature; as utterly inconsistent with the law of God, which requires us to love our neighbors as ourselves, and as totally irreconcilable with the spirit and principles of the Gospel of Christ which enjoin that 'all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye even so to them.' Slavery creates a paradox in the moral system; it exhibits rational, accountable, and immortal beings in such circumstances as scarcely to leave them the power of moral action. It exhibits them as dependant on the will of others whether they shall receive religious instruction; whether they shall know and worship the true God; whether they shall enjoy the ordinances of the Gospel; whether they shall perform the duties or cherish the endearments of husbands, wives, parents and children, neighbors and friends; whether they shall preserve their chastity and purity, or regard the dictates of justice and humanity. Such are some of the consequences of slavery—consequences not imaginary, but which connect themselves with its very existence. The evils to which the slave is always exposed often take place in fact and in their very worst degree and form; and when all of them do not take place, as we rejoice to say in many instances, through the influence [illegible] ple of humanity and [illegible] of masters, [illegible] numer of [illegible] pas in[illegible] inflict[illegible] ries [illegible] gest. F[illegible] sulti[illegible] tian [illegible] of e[illegible] man[illegible] all [illegible] the e[illegible] Chris[illegible] ent [illegible] both [illegible] ligion [illegible] ally [illegible] bones [illegible] corre[illegible] speed[illegible] on out[illegible] compl[illegible] Christ[illegible] world[illegible] The [illegible] the me[illegible] not on[illegible] instru[illegible] duties. "we [illegible] Presby[illegible] sembly [illegible] possibl[illegible] kind i[illegible] the cru[illegible] parents

sists in selling slaves to those who will either themselves deprive these unhappy people of the blessings of the Gospel, or who will transport them to places where the Gospel is not proclaimed, or where it is forbidden to slaves to attend upon its institutions.

The foregoing testimony on the subject of slavery, were universally acquiesced in by the Presbyterian Church up to the time of the division in 1838.

In the year 1846, the General Assembly made a declaration on this subject, of which the following is the introductory paragraph:

"1. The system of slavery as it exists in these United States, viewed either in the laws of the several States, which sanction it or in its actual operation and results in society, is intrinsically [illegible] system, and is opposed to the prescriptions of the law of God, to the [illegible] and spirit of the Gospel, and to the best interests of humanity."

In 1849 the Assembly explicitly re-affirmed the sentiments expressed by the Assemblies of 1816, 1818 and 1846. In the year 1856 the General Assembly made the following declaration:

"We exceedingly deplore the workings of the whole system of slavery as it exists in our country and is interwoven with the political institutions of the slave-holding States, as fraught with many and great evils to the civil, political and moral interests of those regions where it exists.

"The holding of our fellow-men in the condition of slavery except in those cases where it is unavoidable by the laws of the State, the obligations of guardianship, or the demands of humanity, is an offence in the proper import of that term as used in the Book of Discipline chap. 1, sec. 3, and should be regarded and treated in the same manner as other offences."

Occupying the position in relation to this subject which the framers of our Constitution held at the first, and which our church has always held, it is with deep grief that we now discover that a portion of the Church at the South has so far departed from the established doctrine of the church in relation to slavery, as to maintain "it is an ordinance of God," that the system of slavery existing in these United States is Scriptural and right. Against this new doctrine we feel constrained to bear our solemn testimony. It is at war with the whole spirit and tenor of the Gospel of love and good will, as well as abhorrent to the conscience of the Christian world. We can have no sympathy or fellowship with it; and we exhort all our people to eschew it as a serious and pernicious error.

We are especially pained by the fact that the Presbytery of Lexington South, gives official notice to us that a number of ministers and ruling elders, as well as many church members in their connection, hold slaves "from principle" and "of choice," "believing it to be according to Bible right," and have, without any qualifying explanation, assumed the responsibility of sustaining such ministers, elders and church members in their position. We deem it our duty, in the exercise of our constitutional authority, "to bear testimony against error in doctrine or immorality in practice in any Church, Presbytery or Synod," to disapprove and earnestly condemn the position which has thus been assumed by the Presbytery of Lexington South, as one which is opposed to the established convictions of the Presbyterian Church, and must operate to mar its peace and seriously hinder its prosperity, as well as bring reproach on our holy religion; and we do hereby call on that Presbytery to review and correct their position. Such doctrines and practice cannot be permanently tolerated in the Presbyterian Church. May they speedily melt away under the illuminating and mellowing influence of the Gospel and grace of God our Saviour.

We do not, indeed, pronounce a sentence of indiscriminate condemnation upon all our brethren who are unfortunately connected with the system of Slavery. We tenderly sympathize with all those who deplore the evil, and are honestly doing all in their power for the present well-being of their slaves, and their complete emancipation.

We would aid and not embarrass such brethren. And yet, in the language of the [illegible] 1818, we would

MOB LAW IN IOWA.

Just now the scene of murder and violence seems to be transferred to the West, and Iowa takes the lead. The Jackson County Vigilance Committee, said to number 400 members, although not more than fifty take part in its proceedings, have undertaken to enforce their laws, not only in their own, but in the surrounding counties, and dispense "justice" without the slow process of trial and conviction. This mob is headed by an officer of the government, the Postmaster at Iron Hill, and a Justice of the Peace, a sworn officer of the law. We recently gave the details of the last exploit of this Vigilance Committee. Forty or [illegible] to Dewitt, in Clinton county, and took from the jail two alleged murderers, Barger and Carroll. We copy from the Maquoketa Excelsior, the closing scenes of the horrible tragedy:

"Early on Friday morning, the Mob-train passed through this City with their victims, on their way to Andrew, the seat of Lynch Justice chosen by the self-styled Vigilance Committee. Arrived in Andrew, no time was lost in useless preliminaries. A black handkerchief was tied over Barger's face, the rope adjusted by Capt. Landis, a young lad climbed the tree (the same where Grifford swung) and threw it over the consecrated limb. About twenty men laid down their guns, manned the rope, and Barger swung between the heavens and the earth; a few short heavings of the chest, a spasm of the feet and legs, and Barger hung a quivering corpse. Men, women and children looked on the horrid spectacle and winced not. Notwithstanding the summary proceedings of the Mob, a large concourse of people was present. Many went from this vicinity out of a morbid curiosity.—Some of them had the pleasure of seeing Barger hung, and some were disappointed. We commiserate both classes.

"After dispatching Barger, the Mob took a vote on Carroll's case, and decided not to hang him just then. He was placed in the jail, there to be kept and guarded until further orders from the High Court of Judge Lynch.

"These new legal functionaries of our County, then had a general jail delivery of the criminals there confined. One fellow, incarcerated for horse-stealing, took time by the fore-lock and broke jail the evening previous; it was well for his hide that he did so, as his cuteness saved his back from many stripes. The jailor heard the prisoners the evening before, undoing the door fastening, and ran for assistance; when he returned, the bird had taken wing for parts unknown. The only remaining prisoner, a petty larceny bird, was then turned loose by the Mob, and admonished to make himself scarce in Jackson County; thereupon he mizzled. Many of our leading citizens, we understand, contributed liberally towards the expenses of the capture and execution of Barger. Capt. Landis, a U. S. Government officer, led the Mob, and we are told disbursed some $400 in defraying expenses, all contributed by the citizens of Jackson County."

"ORGIES OF THE MOB.

"The body of Barger hung upon the tree about three hours, when he was placed in a box with his clothes and boots on, nailed, and a hole dug upon a vacant lot, in which the corpse was placed. Next morning the dead body was taken up by some of the refined spirits of the mob, placed upright in a buggy, with clothes and hat on, and driven to Cobb's Hotel. A slip of paper had been placed in the hands of the hideous corpse, which called for dinner and horse feed. Such are some of the natural out-croppings of this lower strata, in the midst of a community that boasts of decency, some degree of refinement, and a modicum of Christianity."

We are glad to see that these exhibitions of lawlessness and brutality are properly denounced by the decent portion of the local press. The Marquoketa Excelsior comes down on the leaders in this style:

"We are no prophet—but we venture the prediction, that their services and zeal in behalf of Mobocracy, will be duly [illegible]

POISONED LIQUORS.

Every person who puts the tempting glass to the lip now drinks poison as certainly as any of Lucretia Borgia's victims!—Start not temperate or intemperate drinkers but listen to facts.

The Toronto Colonist, of the 8th, states that on Thursday a clerk by the name of Merris, in the employ of Mr. Wright liquor manufacturer at Hampton, left the store for the purpose of manufacturing a quantity of brandy from raw spirits. He took with him a preparation used for this purpose, by some called essence of wine, [illegible] by others essence of brandy. While [illegible] preparing doses of death for others he carelessly tasted of the spirits of wine, (Prussic acid) and in a few minutes was a corpse.—No Borgia ever prepared a more deadly draught.

[illegible] Dr. Hiram Cox, appointed under the law of Ohio, Chemical Inspector of Liquors in Cincinnati, has published facts that should be engraved around the rim of every drinking glass. He states that during two years he has made 249 inspections of various kinds of liquors, and has found more than nine-tenths of them imitations, and a greater portion of them poisonous concoctions. Of brandy he has not found one gallon of pure in a hundred gallons, the imitations having corn whiskey for basis, and various poisonous acids for the condiments. Of wines not a gallon in a thousand, purporting to be Sherry, Port, Sweet, Malaga, is pure, but they are made of water, sulphuric acid, alum, Guinea pepper, horse radish, and many of them without a single drop of alcoholic spirit.

Dr. Cox warrants there are not ten gallons of genuine Port wine in Cincinnati.—He also states that in his inspections of whiskey he has found only from 17 to 20 per cent. of alcoholic spirits, when it should have been 45 to 50, and some of it contains sulphuric acid enough in a quart to eat a hole through a man's stomach.

At the late session of the Legislature of Ohio a stringent law was passed to prevent the use of strychnine and other poisons in the manufacture and preparation of liquors. The sale of such adulterated liquors is also prohibited under severe penalties. So universal had the poisoning of liquors by distillers and dealers become, that public safety demanded the law. The members from the great distilling sections of the State urged its passage and the vote in both branches was nearly unanimous. Liquor drinkers may thus read DEATH in the bottom of every glass they drain.

The strychnine cholera among the slop-fed hogs at the whiskey distilleries of the Ohio Valley, further demonstrates what poisons humans imbibe from the same worm. Since the general introduc[illegible] strychnine and other active poisons [illegible] crease the yield of liquor from a bushel of corn or rye, the hogs have been swept off by thousands. At Ingraham's Distillery, near Cincinnati, from the 1st of August to the 24th of October, 1,285 hogs died of the strychnine [illegible] At one distillery in Pittsburgh [illegible] of October, 2,576. Mr. [illegible], Indiana, lost 500 [illegible]ton, Ky., 500; [illegible] 4,546. At the exte[illegible] distilleries, 10,435 have died [illegible] chnine disease made its appearance, and in the vicinity of Aurora 6,000 have died. At the Dresden, Ohio, distilleries, the disease is prevalent; and the strychnine cholera is raging at the great whiskey manufactories near Baltimore.

When brutes fed on the refuse of the poisoned mash thus perish, is it a marvel that delirium and death are so common among temperate and intemperate drinkers? That a few glasses destroy health? That habitual use produces delirium tremens? That excessive use kills?

Human skulls should be the goblets of modern poison retailers, for their maddened guests literally "sup on horrors."—Cleve. Herald.

A King Guarded by [illegible]

[illegible] Moniteur del [illegible] details relating [illegible] the [illegible] of Siam. One [illegible] attracts the attention of strangers [illegible] a battalion of the King's Guard [illegible] of women. This battalion [illegible] four hundred women, chosen among the handsomest and most robust girls [illegible] country. They receive excellent pay, [illegible] their discipline is perfect. They are admitted [illegible] at the age of thirteen, and are placed [illegible] reserve at twenty-five. From [illegible] they no longer serve about the King's person, but are employed to guard the royal palaces and crown lands.

On [illegible] the army they make a vow on chastity, from which there is no exemption un[illegible] should attract the King's attention and be admitted among his legitimate wives. The King's choice seldom falls on the most beautiful, but on the most skilled in military exercises. The hope of such a reward animates them with extraordinary zeal for military instructions, and Europeans are astonished at the martial appearance of that battalion, as well as its skill in manœuvring and its excellent discipline.

The costume women wear is very rich. Their full dress is composed of a white woolen robe, embroidered with gold. The cloth is extremely fine, and descends as far as the knee; it is covered with a light coat of mail and a gay cuirass. The arms are free, and the head is covered with a gilt casque. When wearing this dress on state occasions, their only weapon is a lance, which they handle with wonderful dexterity. With their undress they are armed with a musket. The battalion is composed of four companies, and each company of one hundred women commanded by a captain of their sex. Should the captain die, the company is drilled for three days by the King, who appoints the most competent to the command. The battalion has been commanded for the last five years by a woman, who saved the King's life at a tiger hunt by her courage and skill. She possesses great influence at court, and is much respected by those under her command. She has the same establishment as a member of the royal family, and ten elephants are placed at her service. The King never undertakes any expedition without being accompanied by his female guard, nor does he ever hunt or even ride out without an escort of the same guard, who are devotedly attached to his person.

Each individual of the battalion has five negresses attached to her service; and having thus no domestic occupation, she can devote herself exclusively to the duties of her profession. There is a parade-ground near the city, where one company is stationed [illegible] every week to exercise themselves [illegible] lance, the pistol, the musket and the rifle. The King attends once a month at those exercises, accompanied by his brother, who shares in some degree the sovereign power, and distributes prizes to those most deserving. These rewards consist of bracelets or other valuable jewelry, to which the girls and their families attach great importance. Those so honored fill the offices of sergeant and corporal.

A farmer, getting tired of his wife, an exemplary, modest woman, bribes one of his farm servants to seduce his wife into adultery—a crime attended by no punishment for the unmarried party. The crime having been [illegible]mated, he petitions for di[illegible] ground, and obtains [illegible] another woman [illegible]

Persons of billious habit, or who are liable to attacks of dyspepsia, should fortify their systems against the relaxing heats of summer by a course of this mild, aperient and alterative in the spring. It not only regulates the secretions and removes obstructions from the bowels, but braces and re-vitalizes the digestive powers, when weakened by indulgence, or rendered torpid by a sedentary life. The testimony of invalids of both sexes and all ages in every part of the globe, demonstrates beyond question that all internal diseases not resulting from malformation, are capable of being cured by this great remedy.

The last foreign news announces that the East India Company have taken possession of the Island of Perim. This act was one of those summary proceedings which are very much condemned by British statesmen and British newspapers when other than their own [illegible] guilty of them, but which are [illegible] by the motive. A British ship was wrecked and pillaged by the natives. The East India Company, believing that the authority existing on the island was insufficient to give protection to shipwrecked seamen, took possession of the Island and has placed a garrison there. Commercial policy of stronger motive probably was the real inducement to this act. There is a strong probability that the Isthmus of Suez will be opened by a canal. Division of California.

The last news from our Pacific empire was that the Legislature of California had passed an act submitting to the people the question of calling a convention to revise the constitution of the State. The pretext for this is for California to legalize her public debt, and resume the payment of interest thereon. This is a very worthy object, and if nothing else were at the bottom, we should rejoice with those who detest repudiation. But it appears that the question of dividing California into three States has something to do with the matter, and that it will be brought up in the Constitutional Convention which no one doubts will be voted for and chosen. The State is overrun with ambitious politicians, mostly those who have made but little figure anywhere else in the Union. The number of those who aspire to leading positions is almost inconceivable, and the competition for every post is such as to engender the most desperate schemes.

In such a condition of things we do not doubt that they will all be anxious for a division of California into three States, in order to become thereby United States Senators, Governors, Congressmen, Attorney Generals, and the like. When we remember that the creation of two additional new States out of California would exactly treble the number of fat offices existing there, the temptation seems to great to be resisted. Then, besides the politicians, there are whole hosts of contractors, bankers, land speculators, etc., anxious for the erection of these new States in order to secure the profits to be derived from locating new State capitols, establishing new land offices, building new public edifices, and all that sort of thing.

Supposing the project for division to succeed the question naturally arises as to the complexion of the new States in regard to slavery. Two of the three, it is conceded, would be free, the population being so numerous and so decidedly opposed to slavery as to leave no chance for the institution there. But the third or southernmost State, it is thought, might become slaveholding, on account of the predominance of the agricultural interest. This may be so; but our observation of affairs in California goes to show that the bulk of the native or Mexican population is located in the South, and that it is hostile to slavery. Still there is so much juggling in politics, and the will of the people is so often set at naught, that it might be managed otherwise. In order to include population enough in the southern section to form a State, it would be necessary to take about two-fifths of the whole area of California. To compensate the two northern sections for this, the original scheme was to add to the new States considerable slices from the adjacent territory of Utah. This might be looked upon with the more favor in consequence of the Mormon troubles. Should California be divided, as proposed, and Oregon admitted as a State, there would then be four States upon the Pacific, instead of one, forming quite a Pacific Division of the Union.—Phila. North American.

VENERABLE MISTAKES.

A Newer and Better Philosophy.

The wonderful results produced by his Pills in all the varieties of internal disease, and the no less astonishing effects of his Ointment in external disorders, are notorious in this country and throughout the Globe. We have had many opportunities of witnessing the rapidity and completeness with which ulcerous complaints are subdued or rather extirpated, by the combined action of the Ointment and the Pills. These two great specifics seem reciprocally to assist each other in the cure of this class of diseases. Many practitioners are afraid to undertake the healing of a sore leg or a deep seated abcess; the reduction of a wen or a humor. Well, they may be, for with the exception of Holloway's all the methods of treating these forms of disease are wholly superficial. But he refers them, primarily, to a vitiated condition of the blood, and attacks the poison thrown into circulation by the secretive organs at its fountain head the stomach and liver. The bu[illegible] arrangements of the publishers of this paper will oblige them to call upon those with whom they have accounts, for a SPEEDY SETTLEMENT; and in order that all such may be seen, one of the publishers will accompany H. B. Anderson, Esq., the County Treasurer, while filling his appointments in the different townships, so [illegible] without loss of time to any party but ourselves. While other papers, almost everywhere, are obliging their patrons to pay in advance, ours will certainly not take it hard when we but ask them to pay up arrears, or at least to give us their due bills for whatever the amount may be.

This No. of the Argus closes our current year. Those of our friends who wish to avail themselves of the advance rates can do so within the next few weeks.

THE MAIN LINE--REPEAL.

It is now settled beyond a doubt that the sale of the Public Works is to be an important issue in the coming election. The Democratic party has placed itself in a position of decided and unequivocal hostility to the measure. At its State Convention last week, a resolution condemning the sale was passed without a dissenting voice. An amendment was offered to the effect that opposition to a sale at this time should not be construed into opposition to a sale hereafter upon more favorable terms, was indefinitely postponed. Many of the larger and lesser lights of the party, taking their cue from the Convention, have already taken up and thrown to the breeze the rallying cry of 'Repeal!' Opposition merely to the present bill providing for a sale, would not be a cause of much surprise, for it must be confessed that it is not as free from objection as it might be; yet the experience of several unsuccessful efforts to sell, has demonstrated that unless favorable terms are held out to buyers, they never can, and never will be disposed of. But, for the party to plant itself fairly and squarely upon the ground that they will consent to a sale under no circumstances, and upon no terms whatever, evinces a boldness we did not expect to see. What has produced this wonderful change? Two years ago, they manifested a "masterly inactivity" on this question. They occupied neutral ground. It was difficult at that time to find a Democrat who possessed nerve enough, to stand up in the face of an overwhelming public sentiment, and declare that the State ought not to relinquish control over her improvements. Why this change? The corruption and fraud alleged to have been carried on in their management for many years past, have neither ceased nor have they been circumscribed. On the contrary, they have greatly spread and multiplied. The number of unnecessary places created for, and filled by partizan favorites, have not been diminished; on the other hand, they have increased to such an extent, that they can be viewed in no other light than as a vast horde of harpies, feeding and fattening upon the vitals of the Commonwealth. The yearly amount in keeping them in repair, and in paying the salaries of the superintendents, overseers, contractors, understrappers, &c., would aid very essentially in improving the public morals, and in lessening State taxation. Every day that serves to lessen their value, and every day but makes the prospect more remote that the State will ever realize from them any pecuniary advantage. Henry S. Mott, the President of the Board of Canal Commissioners, in filing an injunction before the Supreme Court, to restrain the sale on the 25th inst., states upon his oath, that

"The canals belonging to the State are 283 miles in length, requiring heavy expenditures for repairs and expenses and have not for many years yielded income sufficient to pay the cost of keeping them in navigable order."

Now, let the tax-payers examine this subject thoroughly. Let them determine by their votes whether they will have their taxes gradually [illegible] the State debt [illegible]

"SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY."

This favorite battle-cry of the Democracy will be subjected to a fiery ordeal before the lapse of a great while. Matters in Utah are drawing to a head. The crisis must be reached within the next year. Brigham Young, and his followers, with their long train of wives, must either get the full benefit of the "Squatter Sovereignty" principle, and have free and unrestrained license to rob, murder, disregard all laws, human or Divine, and perpetrate the most revolting crimes, and inflict all the tortures and cruelties which fiends in human form can suggest or invent; or the laws must be enforced, the nest of vampires broken up, and their Plurality Wife System with all its kindred iniquities, cast to the winds. Viewed in any light, the question must be a perplexing one to the Administration. The great difficulty, heretofore experienced, and which has not yet been overcome, of procuring the right kind of a man to send there to supplant Brigham Young in the capacity of Governor, shows that the President is imbued with a due sense of the delicate matter with which he has to do, and that he is disposed to act upon that easy, cautious and non-committal system of tactics to which he has conformed undeviatingly for many years past. But cautious and tender scheming can now avail but little. The time for that has passed by—The period for stern and decisive action has arrived. The hideous Beast of that territory has [illegible] ponderous proportions, that, unless he is promptly taken [illegible], and dealt with as he deserves, he will extend the sphere of his operations to such an extent that he may well bid defiance to all the force that can be brought against him. Upon the next Congress will devolve the imperative duty of legislating this alarming evil out of existence. If the party having the majority fails to do this, they should, and undoubtedly will, be held to a rigid accountability, for winking at, and countenancing the monstrosities committed in that territory. The Republican portion of the Territorial Committee of the last Congress reported a bill excluding Polygamy and Slavery forever from that territory, but the dose was too strong for the sensitive nerves of those Democrats who had been preaching up the beauties of "Squatter Sovereignty," and the bill was compelled to go over. The evil, however, has grown so fast, that now there is no escape. The question must be met in some shape or other—either the principle of "Squatter Sovereignty" must be exploded or the Democratic party incurs the risk of being "slightly killed" in the year '60.

A SOUTHERN ORGAN IN PENNSYLVANIA.—We have received the first No. of the "Southern Monitor," published at Philadelphia, by J. B. Jones. It is designed to be a strictly Southern journal, and the "uncompromising exponent and defender of Southern rights and Southern institutions." It is rather questionable whether any such paper was needed in this State. It strikes us that the Democratic Press, especially in and [illegible] Philadelphia, has been as facile in the hands of the South as could well be desired—many of them out-Heroding Herod in their devotion and subserviency to the interests of Slavery. The Monitor, however, is a fine looking sheet, of large size, and edited with decided ability.

THE STEAMER FORTUNE, originally intended to ply between Pittsburg and Beaver, but now one of the Wheeling Packets, we are glad to learn, is doing a profitable business. She is under the command of Capt. W. Reno. Our young friend J. F. J. Allison, has charge of the Clerk's office. A recent trip enables us to bear testimony to her good qualities, and to recommend her to the travelling public as a pleasant, safe and swift craft, and manned by a corps of as attentive officers as can be found any where on the river.

FIRE IN THE CAR FACTORY.—A fire broke out in the Car Factory, in Rochester, about midnight, on Tuesday night last, but through the prompt efforts of the citizens, it was speedily extinguished. The fire originated near the engine and boilers. A quantity of lumber, undergoing the process of drying, was destroyed. The loss, in connection with the injury to the engine and boilers, is estimated at about $1500. The most, if not all, of this sum, we learn, is covered by insurance. The business of the Factory was necessarily suspended for a few days; but we are glad to perceive that the establishment is again in successful operation.

THAT COMET, which was said to be "drawing nearer and nearer the earth, filling the whole visible horizon with its bulk, enveloping the globe in darkness, draining the water out of the seas and rivers, and finally converting the world into a heap of cinders," failed to make its appearance on either of the [illegible] days predicted—13th 14th and 16th of the present month The earth looks green and natural as ever, and many, very many of the sons [illegible] of Adam and Eve are yet permitted to [illegible] the great Webster—'We still live.'

To the Trustees of Beaver Academy:

GENTLEMEN: I desire, through you, to tender to the citizens of the county, my resignati[illegible] the office of Trustee of Academy. I [illegible] that each member of the Board has duties [illegible] form, and that he is neither doing justice [illegible] himself, the institution or the people who elected him, when he neglects those duties. Being so engaged that it will be out of my power to serve the people in that capacity, I now resign the place, thanking my fellow-citizens for the honor conferred two years ago.

Respectfully, Yours,
R. G. M'GREGOR.

By the above it will be seen that another vacancy exists in the Board of Trustees of Beaver Academy. It therefore devolves upon the people of the coun[illegible] elect four Trustees at the coming el[illegible] years, one for three, and one [illegible]

In the event of his non acceptance, the indications are that Colonel Cummins, who having once declined, but is now applicant, will be appointed. It is not very improbable that an entire new set of territorial officers will be appointed the Surveyor General included.—The three Judges will be appointed from the West, and the Marshall from Mississippi. Several days will elapse before answers can be received from those to whom appointments have been tendered. The corps of officers will travel to Utah with the military forces.

COLUMBUS, June 17.—W. H. Gibson, Treasurer of the State, resigned his office to day and the Governor has appointed A. P. Stone, of this city, to fill the vacancy.

A deficit of $500,000 has been discovered in the Treasury, which Gibson says existed when he came into office, caused by the defalcations of John G. Buslin the former Treasurer. The Governor has appointed Wm. Denison, in conjunction with the Auditor, to make a full examination of the condition of the Treasury Notwithstanding the deficit the July interest will be paid.

Louisville, June 15—The river is rising with 8 feet of water in the canal, and five on the Falls. There were rains, with wind, thunder and lightning, on Saturday evening, which prostrated the lines here and at New Albany, and deranging the telegraph lines in every direction. Slight accidents occurred on the New Albany and Jeffersonville Railroad. On Monday at noon it was cleared and calm. Mercury 88 deg.

THE "POWER OF THE SOUTH."—The Monitor—the new organ recently started at Philadelphia, for the protection of the interests at the South—in a notice to a correspondent gives the following significant hints to "democratic" aspirants for the loaves and fishes. The "dough-faces" will observe that the only hope of "future" success depends on their adhering to their vocation. The lash of their taskmasters may cause their flesh to quiver, but there is no help for them but abject submission. Truly "the way of the transgressor is hard."—Pitts Gazette.

"A Democrat" is very good and very kind, and no doubt quite candid in his advise and admonitions. But as a politician, as one, perhaps, who casts an eye on 'the spoils,' we think he should make better calculations. It is true, the President himself is a resident of the North. But is it not equally true, that the power which makes Democratic Presidents resides in the South?

Then, if the Democracy be the Union party and the South the Democracy, does it not follow that the maintenance of the [illegible] institutions of the South, is [illegible] the constitution and that any politi[illegible]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—At a recent meeting held in the North Sewickly Academy, and addressed by the County Superintendent elect, (Mr. Avery) it was resolved to hold an Educational Convention in that place on the 25th of June, to which all who are concerned in the educational interests of Beaver County are invited. The general object of this convention is to take measures by which to elevate the standard of common schools in the county. And to effect this object it is desirable that the [illegible] tax-payers be present that they [illegible] informed as to the modus operandi [illegible] whole system of State Education, [illegible] present dilapidated condition in this county. It is also desirable to have as many of the Directors of the different townships, and teachers present as possible, that together they may consult and deliberate the upon best, most prudent, and most satisfactoral method by which to improve our Common Schools, and mutually benefit parents, teachers, and pupils. We give this general invitation so that whatever action may be taken by this convention may be the result of the deliberation of a majority of all parties concerned leaving no ground for complaint by any who may absent themselves through want of interest.

This meeting was proposed and advised is known to be a man of [illegible] who tion and entire competency to fill the office of public trust committed to him by this county, and whose untiring efforts appear to know no other interest than the cause in which he is engaged. It would, therefore, be ungrateful on the part of the citizens of Beaver county if, after electing this gentleman on such an inferior salary, and he accepting at the sacrifice of a position affording a larger one, with no other motive than to advance the educational interests of the county, they do not co-act with him in his worthy undertaking.

Addresses will be delivered upon different topics bearing upon the general object of the convention as given above.—The Superintendent may be expected to speak upon the advantages and benefits of organizing teachers associations throughout the county and also a county Institute.—There will be an address delivered in defence of the office of the County Superintendency and also addresses exclusively to teachers and parents and their relative duties to each other.

It is hoped that this convention, the object of which is so praiseworthy, will produce favorable omens for Beaver county, and elicit such attention to the cause of education as will accomplish its wonted object.

It might not be out of place to remark that though there is no hotel in the immediate vicinity of the Academy, yet any who may come from a distance will be hospitably received in the community.

REV. JOHN PARKER.
REV. HENRY WEBBER.
J. B. KIDDOO.
Committee.

Gov. Geary

This gallant gentleman has been put forth by nearly all the prominent Americans in the State as their choice for the gubernatorial nomination. Before the convention at Lancaster met last week, he penned and sent on a declination of the intended honor. We could have told that party more than a month ago, he would have done as much. We have reasons for believing the Governor a sterling Wilmot Republican, from the most solid convictions of his mind. See if the campaign does not bring him prominently out as such.—Wash. Tribune

THE SUGAR QUESTI[illegible]—The N. Y. Times predicts a [illegible] the price of sugar just now there is a concerted movement among the speculators, to keep it up, but it will not avail:

"The prospects for a full crop are highly encouraging. The high prices which have ruled the past two years have stimulated production, while they have caused a diminution of consumption, and the natural consequences are increasing stocks and a tendency to lower prices. Besides, the crop of Louisiana promises to be nearly four times greater than it was last year, and the yield of maple sugar has been much larger than was ever before known."

A gentleman of Indiana, a native of Kentucky, writes: "From information lately received from my brother, I learn that Northern Texas has a few slaves, and the mass of inhabitants will favor a Free State Constitution when division occurs, as occur it must before long. If I can do anything towards blotting out the curse from one of the fairest portions of our country, constitutionally, I am ready for the work; and think no other field so favorable as Northern Texas. Let Eastern emigration pour into Maryland, Virginia, Missouri, and Northern Texas."

FIRE IN THE WOODS.—For several days most destructive fires have been raging in the woods in Franklin, St. Lawrence and Clinton Counties, New York. Barns, out houses, fences, forests, &c., have all been consumed and two or three lives lost. The Malone Palladium says:

The Brasher iron works are in utter ruins. The foundry, furnace, machine shop, coal houses, saw mill, store, boarding house, barns, sheds, taverns, school house, Postoffice and several dwellings, with their contents, were all consumed. The bridge over the river was also burned. But about five or six houses are left. Several hogs and some calves were also burned.

THE BURDELL CASE.—The trial before the Surrogate still continues, and new and important testimony has been elicited. The public are going very indifferent about the matter, and care very little how it turns out before the Surrogate.

The cook intends to claim a reward of $5,000 offered by the New York Times for discovering that Mr. Snodgrass committed the murder. Snodgrass is likely to be a lion once more.

MORE COUNTERFEITS.—The amount of one dollar notes on the Northern Bank of Kentucky seems to be inexhaustable; a new lot, much superior in execution to the recent spurious issues, having been recently uttered. These new counterfeits are calculated to deceive; the signatures are very good, particularly that of the President.—Cin. Gaz.

A Correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says he has watched the crops for forty years, and thinks that in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, there will be a larger crop of wheat harvested the coming season than ever before.

Persons whose business leads them to Allegheny City, will find it profitable to call at the Clothing and Furnishing Establishment of J. L. Carnaghan, near the Post Office, and examine his goods and prices. His place will be found literally a Depot of Fashion.

It is truly the invalid's friend, and will give relief when all other remedies fail, and in some instances that have come under our observation it seemed the means of snatching its victim from the grave, we wish all our readers who need medicine would try one bottle, for it will surely give relief.

CELEBRATED GERMAN ARNICA

OINTMENT

A never failing remedy for Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, sprains, pains, bruises, pain in the back, stiffness or numbness of the limbs, or weakness in the joints, swellings, sore throat, burns, scalds, cuts, old sores, frosted feet, neuralgic affections, &c., and in fact for all diseases requiring an external application. It has no equal. The numerous remarkable cures effected by the use of the German Arnica Ointment, and the large and constantly increasing demand for the same, has led the Proprietors to bring this invaluable remedy before the public, and take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted.

July Appointments

DR. H. TUBBS,

Will be at his room, Bridgewater, Lehmer's Hotel, Monday, July 20th, 1857

For consultation upon all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Spleen; also Dropsy, Gravel, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Female diseases, Ague and Fever, Fits, Impurities of the blood, Eruptions, Cancers, Ulcers, and all other varieties of long standing complaints, both external and internal.

For some ten years Dr. T. has devoted his entire time to chronic diseases, treating thousands annually, many of whom had exhausted every other resource within reach. In no case are mineral or other poisons employed, nor does he make sick to make well, or tear down to built up again. The medicines can be taken with safety by the most delicate, and patients may remain at home, and continue with prudence their ordinary diet and exercise. Many have recovered under the treatment after friends and physicians had given up all hope, the indisputable evidence of which can always be furnished. Invalids, however reduced or despairing, are invited to call, and may be assured that no encouragement will be given or expense incurred, without a corresponding prospect of recovery.

Thompson tp., Seneca co., O., Jan. 1857.

DR. TUBBS, Sir:—I have delayed sending you a statement of my case but it may be acceptable now. You will remember my condition when I first saw you at Sandusky city, three years ago. It was only by the greatest exertion that I could get to your room. My sickness had been of five months duration, and its ravages had been such that friends and all who saw me supposed I had but a short time to live at longest. The oldest and best physician in Sandusky, and others residing in Seneca, Huron, and Erie counties, had examined and prescribed for me, notwithstanding which, I became worse and worse, I could take but little food, and that little seemed to do me no good, nor did any thing taken, in the least help me of it.

You told me recovery was possible but doubtful. I obtained medicines and in ten days was sensibly improved. At your return, a month later, I was recovering rapidly, and in a few months became as healthy, apparently, as at any time since my youth. For more than twenty-two years I have resided where I now do, and in Groton, Erie county. Being extensively known in these two and some neighboring counties. Any one can get additional testimony from my acquaintances, none of whom supposed I could live three months from the time I first saw you. I am thus particular that others may know where to seek relief from dangerous chronic diseases, when the ordinary remedies fail. Yours respectfully,

GEORGE OSTERHOUT.

A RESISTLESS REMEDY.

HOLLOWAYS' OINTMENT

CIRCULAR TO THE SICK.

The first hospital surgeons and medical publicists of Europe, admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in their naval and military services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fiery elements which feed and exasperate the malady.

RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS.

These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable, they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this soothing, healing, antipote to pain and inflammation.

SALT RHEUM, FEVER SORES, STIFF JOINTS.

In cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every recipe of the pharmacopœa have proved useless, the Ointment will accomplish a thorough cure. Fever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contracted sinews is truly wonderful.

DISCHARGING ULCERS.

A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment.—The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly, until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the ulcer radically cured.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.

The young are the most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces of children.

SIGNIFICANT FACTS.

This Ointment is universally used on board the Atlantic and Pacific whaling fleet as a cure for scorbutic affections and as the best possible remedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions	Lumbago	Sore Legs
Burns	Mercurial	Sore Breasts
Chap'd Hands	Eruptions	Sore Heads
Chilblains	Piles	Sore Throats
Fistulas	Rheumatism	Sores of all kinds
Gout	Salt Rheum
	Skin Dieases	Sprains
Swel'd Glands	Stiff Joints	Scalds
Ulcers	Venereal Sores	Wounds of all kinds.

_ Sold at the Manufactories of Professor Holloway 80 Maiden Lane, New York and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers of Medicines throughout the United States, and the civilived world, in Pots, at 25 cents, 62½ cents, and $1 each.

☞There is a considerable saving by taking the large sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot.

February 25 1857

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Persons of billious habit, or who are liable to attacks of dyspepsia, should fortify their systems against the relaxing heats of summer by a course of this mild, aperient and alterative in the spring. It not only regulates the secretions and remover obstructions from the bowels, but braces and re-vitalizes the digestive powers, when weakened by indulgence, or rendered torpid by a sedentary life. The testimony of invalids of both sexes and all ages in every part of the globe, demonstrates beyond question that a all internal diseases not resulting from malformation, are capable of being cured by this great remedy.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

JE MAINTIENDRAI

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon disordered

STOMACH AND LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve raised up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE!—Whoever expects to find in this abeverage will be disappointed, but to the sick weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedia properties.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

Sold at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00, sold by the proprietors, Benjamin Page, Jr. & Co. Manufacturing Pharmaceutists and Chemists, Pittsburgh, Pa.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions see wrapper on the Box.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, &c.; and for CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—

AGENTS—Young, & Thomas Beaver, Dr. Smith Bridgewater; C. L Kaiser, Rochester, Dr. Sargent, N. Brighton: John Black Darlington, and by all marchants everywhere. Dr. O. Cunningham, Beaver.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

I WOULD most respectfully give notice to the citizens of Bridgewater, Beaver, Rochester and vicinity, that I have received a new stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry &c., which I can sell lower than can be had in Pittsburgh. It is but reasonable to say that goods can be sold lower here than in the large cities; our rent is less, and our living is less I only ask you to call and I will try and sell the goods.

Particular attention paid to repairing Watches, Clocks and Jewelry: old Gold and Silver taken in exchange for goods or work. Remember the place; sign of the Big Watch, No. 2, Stewart's Row, Bridgewater. WM PLATE.

A CARD.—Having relinquished the business and wishing to settle up, I have left all Watches and Jewelry left me for repairs, with Mr. Wm. Plate, where they can be had when called for. Having personal knowledge of Mr. Plate, I would recommend him to my old customers for anything in his line.

May 6, '57. WM. A. LAIRD.

The Greatest Medical Discovery
OF THE AGE.

Dr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and bloches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers,

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of Scrofula.

A benifit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another; after trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—In April 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a desease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys &c,, the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS—Adults one table spoonful per day—Children over ten years dessert spoonfull. Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day. Manufactured by Glad News.

FULL OF HOPE TO THE AFFLICTED AND SUFFERING!

Many of the thousand portals of Death may be closed, and life made happier, and more comfortable to thousands who are now in danger. Doubtless this world contains many a balm to soothe its physical woes and cure its diseases. Among those in prominent rank, stands

VEGETABLE COMPOUND,

A SAFE and speedy cure for Consumption, not only in those milder forms of Throat and Lung Diseases, such as colds, coughs, quinsey, difficulty of breathing, bronchitis, Ministers' sore throat, weakness of the chest, asthma, inward ulcer, spitting of blood, influenza, croup, whooping-cough, pain in the breast and side, hoarseness, catarrh and catarrhal affections, inflammation of the lungs, bleeding of the lungs, and such like. But its superior excellence is seen and tested in the more advanced affections of the lungs. For the truth of the above statement and the efficiency of the preparations as an antidote, we refer the public to the following testimonials:

Language is scarcely strong enough to tell the great power of this WONDERFUL DISCOVERY!

The doubting may try and be convinced.

The Proprietors point to the following bona fide certificates with confidence on the community—they are but samples of the many hundreds of testimonials in our possession:

Philadelphia, Aug. 15. 1856.—Last spring, while in Pittsburgh, I had a bad cold and a friend of mine gave me a bottle of Bowman's Vegetable Compound for diseases of the throat and lungs, which I commenced taking, and found relief almost immediately. I had taken many things for cough and hoarseness, but never got anything to help me as it has done. I believe it to be the best antidote for coughs and hoarseness that is out, and cheerfully recommend it to the public. THOS. H. STOCKTON.
Pastor 1st Prot. Meth. Church.

From Judge Vanhorn, of the District Court at Cincinnatia.

Cincinnati, May 4, 1856.—I have used Bowman's Vegetable Compound for bronchitis and cough, and believe it to be the best medicine out for those diseases, and the only one I ever got to give me any permanent relief. It will cure. I recommend it to the public as an honest and efficient medicine, and will perform what it is published to do W. VANHORN.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have used Bowman's Vegetable Compound in my family, for coughs, colds and Ministers' sore throat and believe it to be the best thing that I ever got for those complaints, and cheerfully recommend it to the public.

REV. J. GASTON.
Pastor of the Clinton st. M. E. Church,
June 10, 1855. Cincinnati.

Here is one from the old pioneer Methodist preacher of Ohio, Rev. J. B. Finley:

I believe Bowman's Vegetable Compound to be the best remedy for Diseased Throat and Lungs, of the day. I have tested it, and found it to be the best of all the popular remedies I ever tried, and I have tried very many. I recommend it to the public. Try it and you will be convinced of its superiority.

Cincinnati July 1856. Rev. J. B. FINLEY.

Hear what the celebrated Dr. Peck says:

New York, May 12, 1856:—I have used Bowman's Vegetable Compound for coughs and hoarseness in speaking; and believe it to be the best preparation for Throat and Lung complaints I ever got; and I recommend it to the public speaker and singer, as well as those afflicted with Lung diseases. J. T. PECK.

Hear what Dr. Benson, of Cincinnati, says:

[Extract from a letter.]

"Bowman's Vegetable Compound contains a virtue which is not possessed by any other popular medicine in my knowledge. It does not only smoothe the disease over, giving it only temporary relief (like most of patent medicines,) but it commences at the root of the disease, and performs a perfect cure.
